Letter from the President

Hyde Park celebrates National Night Out in the neighborhood

Dear Residents,

If you didn't make our September association meeting featuring mayoral and city council candidates, you have a chance to see another forum on Oct. 21 with the Neartown Association-sponsored candidate forum on Oct. 21, 7–8:30pm at St. Stephen's, 1805 W. Alabama Street. Thanks to all who attended the roundtable.

Get ready for our biggest event of the year, National Night Out on Tuesday, Oct. 6 in Lamar Park starting at 6pm. All residents are invited to connect with neighbors for community safety, and enjoy free abundant food and drinks for all. Bring your lawn chair and flashlight to the park, on Hyde Park between Waugh and Commonwealth. A HUGE thank you goes out to Vice President Tammi Wallace and Volunteer Coordinator Roy Brooks for many hours and momentous effort in planning this event. With nearly 30 generous sponsors on board and the help of many other volunteers, it's sure to be our most plentiful, fun celebration. Look inside this newsletter for full info.

Speaking of this newsletter, I want to thank volunteer Beth Cunningham serving in the crucial role of newsletter distribution coordinator for almost two years. Please join me in appreciation for her commitment, patience and stellar coordination that brought our publication to your doorsteps.

Our next official association meeting will take place on Nov. 2, with annual board of directors elections will take place. See page 4 for the candidate roster. All paid members are eligible to vote. Sign up for 2016 at National Night Out, and get three bonus membership months this year.

Sincerely,
Macy Bodenhamer
President

Volunteer Appeal for our Hyde Park Community

Submitted by Roy Brooks, Volunteer Co-ordinator

September has seen a whirlwind of volunteerism sweeping Hyde Park! Our sponsor outreach team for National Night Out has been working hard to secure food and donations for our event on October 6th! It's going to be an unforgettable and fun evening; we look forward to seeing YOU there!

The following are volunteer opportunities still open. This is not a complete list, so if you have an idea or a question, as always, feel free to send me an e-mail: volunteer@hydeparkhouston.org

Lamar Park Co-Chairs/Committee Members

These co-positions coordinate the maintenance and care of Lamar Park. We are in need to fill these positions to ensure that our park does not regress to abandonment! We need a team of about four folks. Altogether around 2 hours a month commitment.

Lamar Park Fundraising Committee

Do you have experience in fundraising? We need your help with carrying on our efforts at restoring Houston's oldest fountain in Hyde Park; The Eight Dolphins.

Newsletter Writers

Have you had a long-time interest in exploring something different or relevant to you about our neighborhood? We would love to feature your own research and writing in the newsletter!

Other possibilities include writing about your restaurant experiences here in Houston, or even about something daily that you live or experience that when viewed from a slightly different angle, is extraordinary.

"Everybody can be great. Because anybody can serve. You don't have to have a college degree to serve. You don't have to make your subject and your verb agree to serve...You don't have to know the second theory of thermodynamics in physics to serve. You only need a heart full of grace. A soul generated by love."

Beautification Committee Chairs and Members

Beautification Committee members work to enhance, maintain, and restore the beauty of Hyde Park. They also oversee the awarding of a local residence with "Yard of the Month." The committee endeavors to educate and engage residents in beautification projects and cleanup activities for our neighborhood.

Co-Chairs, Home Tour

These two positions would be responsible for organizing and overseeing the annual display of historic and noteworthy homes in Hyde Park. An interest in architecture and the history of Hyde Park is not necessary but a big help!

Annual HPCA Board of Directions Election Monday, November 2

The Hyde Park Civic Association annual Board of Directors election is scheduled for Monday, November 2 during the regular monthly meeting. If you are interested in serving on the board or would like to nominate a candidate, please email Tammi Wallace at vicepresident@hydeparkhouston.org or call 713-301-2266. Board candidates must be current paid members of the Association.

A Nominating Committee has been formed and committee members are Mike McKann (Chair), Alice McCarthy and George Sroka. Positions up for election are President, Secretary, Deed Restrictions, Position #2 and At-Large Board Member. The position responsibilities are listed in the Hyde Park Civic Association bylaws which can be found online at www.hydeparkhouston.org. The following individuals are currently serving in these positions or have expressed interest and have been nominated by the Committee for election to the 2016 Board.

MACY BODENHAMER

Macy Bodenhamer is a 21-year Montrose resident, residing in East Montrose for 14 years and calling

Hyde Park home for the past seven years. She has served on the HPCA board and as Citizens on Patrol volunteer for five years, is a former newsletter editor, and block captain of six years.

She is a marketing communications specialist with 21 years of experience in corporate communications, currently serving as account supervisor with a local marketing boutique agency. Her areas of expertise include project management, advertising, public relations, and communications strategy.

In addition to her ongoing commitment to our community, Macy is a recipient of the Leadership Houston Patrice Johnson Distinguished Alumni Award and volunteers in leadership and the arts.

Macy's heart resides in her native Louisiana, but her soul is firmly planted in Texas. She enjoys all that Hyde Park offers, including accessibility, diversity, and appreciation for great neighbors. As president, she intends to continue to lead Hyde Park forward as a united, safe and engaged community.

SECRETARY

DIANA MOBLEY

Diana Mobley grew up around the world as a Navy brat, but settled in Houston in 2002 to attend the University of Houston. She first moved to Hyde Park in 2005, and has been the chair of the Deed Restrictions committee since 2013. Diana is a licensed professional engineer in the oil & gas industry, and enjoys spending time with her fiancé, being on the HPCA board, and volunteering with Big Brothers Big Sisters.

DEED RESTRICTIONS, POSITION #2

CHRIS BROOKS-DELPHIN

Chris Delphin and his partner Roy moved to Hyde Park in the Spring of 2011. Chris grew up in Spring, Texas, and graduated from Spring High School. He received his bachelor's degree from The Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore, Maryland, and his law degree from New York University School of Law. After some years living in NYC, Chris relocated home to Houston to be close to his family.

Chris has a broad legal practice that covers project finance and development and energy commodity trading. He currently works for BG Group, a British oil and gas company.

Chris was drawn to Hyde Park because of its wonderful mix of old and new. He would like to serve on the Deed Restrictions Committee so that he can work with his neighbors to safeguard the quirky beauty of our neighborhood.

AT-LARGE BOARD MEMBER

ROY BROOKS-DELPHIN

Roy Brooks-Delphin, originally from East Texas, has called Hyde Park home for the past four years. Over the past year, Roy has taken an active interest in the neighborhood, seeking to help where help is most needed. Presently, he serves as Hyde Park Civic Association's volunteer coordinator, Lamar Park's interim co-chair, and the interim block captain for Hazel/West Gray Streets.

A thespian by training, Roy holds degrees from Santa Clara University as well as New York University. He has taught theatre and performance at all levels, most recently at the University of Georgia (Athens) where he completed his graduate school coursework. He is currently at work on his dissertation.

As a prospective board member-at-large, Roy aspires to learn more about today's needs and goals for Hyde Park's civic association. He is especially driven at ensuring the future of our only public green space, Lamar Park, and he is equally eager in envisioning and bringing to light projects that do and will make Hyde Park a special and fond place to call home for all residents.

Native Texas plants in gardens, landscaping and habitats help sustain nature at a time when the “wild and natural” are disappearing. These plants help sustain a healthy ecosystem by supporting a biodiversity of plant and animal life - a balance that nature intended. Around our homes and in our community, getting back to nature brings many benefits for families, the environment and the economy.

Celebrate Texas Native Plant Week October 18-24, 2015

Submitted by Dr. Russell Kane

Texas Native Plant Week occurs every year during the third full week of October. It was conceived as a way to promote civic interest in preserving our state's rich biological heritage for future generations through building greater awareness, use and knowledge of native plants in our local communities and schools. This annual event became a reality in 2009 by proclamation of the Texas legislature.

Key points to consider during Texas Native Plant Week are:

- Native plants are essential to a healthy natural environment that promotes insect diversity (especially our pollinators and butterflies) and sustaining life for native Texas birds and mammals.
- These plants are actually preferred by native birds and insects, providing food, cover and resting places required for them to flourish in your neighborhood.
- Native plants are less expensive and require lower maintenance than conventional grass and bedding plants based on reduced usage of water, fertilizers, pesticides and their ability to promote deeper and healthier soils.

Being a Houston gardener for over 40 years, planting my yard in Hyde Park with Texas native plants was a stimulating experience. I learned that there are many Texas native plants that can be easily substituted for conventional bedding flowers, shrubs and trees. I also learned that native plant gardening doesn't necessarily mean “wild looking”. Through elimination of conventional lawn grass, my water bill was reduced more than 60% and my use of pesticides and garden chemicals is now almost nil. Best of all, I regularly see several kinds of native bees, butterflies and birds because there is something in bloom or going to seed nearly year-round.

On the community level, native plant organizations encourage citizens to take time during Texas Native Plant Week to unite with their civic associations and schools to promote educating children about the importance of native grasses, trees and wildflowers and their role with the environment and wildlife. Simple ways to do this are to start a wildflower garden in your yard or tree lawn, in a public space in your community or at a local school. Seeds and plants are available through local native plant sales and seed programs from the Native Plant Society of Texas Houston (NPSOT) Chapter www.npsot.org/wp/houston, Houston Arboretum (www.houstonarboretum.org) and some nurseries.

Information on Texas native plants is readily available. The Native Plant Society of Texas Houston Chapter has an active Facebook page. Other resources include:

- Monarch Larva Monitoring Project (Texas)
<http://mlmp.org/Results/ResultsState.aspx?state=TX>
- Monarch Watch

- Texas Parks and Wildlife (Wildscape Certification) www.tpwd.texas.gov/huntwild/wild
- Buchanan's Native Plants
www.buchanansplants.com
- Joshua's Native Plants
www.joshuasnativeplants.net

There are more than ample reasons to "grow native", but it is often difficult for individuals, communities and nurseries to get the process of native community gardening started. The NPSOT has recently initiated an effort to alleviate this situation with its Native Landscape Certification Program (NLCP). These classes provide individuals and professionals with the essentials for starting and sustaining native plant gardens and habitats.

Native Texas plant garden in Hyde Park community

The native plant garden at the Houston Zoo jointly managed by Texas Gulf Coast Master Naturalist and the Native Plant Society of Texas - Houston Chapter

NLCP classes teach best practices for native plant landscape and habitat introduction and preservation using a combination of classroom instruction and outside fieldwork at a local natural area. Sessions include instruction in native plant identification (including trees, shrubs, flowers and grasses), the uses and selection of native plants in landscaping, and identification of common exotic/invasive plant species important to control. While available in other parts of Texas currently, the Houston Chapter NPSOT will bring this program to Houston starting Spring 2016.
